RESPONSES TO BIDDER QUESTIONS

Q1. What is the total quantity of prisoners for this bid? The solicitation states that the average is 43,000. Is that number yearly or monthly? Additionally, the quantities were further broken down to an average of 21,000 breakfast meals and 29,000 lunch meals. That's yearly right? What is the total number per day?

A1. The total number of prisoners fluctuates; thus the rationale for providing an estimated number. This solicitation has estimated quantities for breakfast and dinner meals of 21,000 and 29,000 respectively. There are no lunch meals included in this requirement.

Please refer to Sections C.5.6.1 and F.3 of the solicitation for the average daily quantities.

Q2. What is the average cost per person?

A2. This information is currently unavailable.

Q3. Are bidders asked to provide pricing for all three meals (i.e. breakfast, lunch and dinner)?

A3. Bidders are asked to provide unit and total estimated pricing for the two (2) required meals of breakfast and dinner only.

Q4. On page three of the contract do we fill out only option one for the first year? Or do we have the option to obtain this contract for up to four years?

A4. Prospective bidders must bid on all Contract Line Items. Please refer to Section L.2.5 and M.2 of the solicitation for additional instructions.

Q5. What specifically is Section B.5 of page 5 contract is asking for? It's asking for a notarized statement about a subcontract?

A5. If it is the bidder's intention to subcontract any portion of this requirement, then the bidder must submit a subcontracting plan that clearly outlines how the work will be apportioned. Please refer to Section H.9 of the solicitation for additional instructions.

Q6. What about Section B.6 Bidder's Authorization to extend contract? It's asking for a yes no answer.

A6. Essentially, yes should bidders want other jurisdictions (i.e. neighboring cities, towns and municipalities) to have the ability to purchase the same services using the resulting contract.

Q7. Who is the current vendor?

A7. The current vendor is Holder Enterprises.
