DETERMINATION AND FINDINGS FOR SOLE SOURCE PROCUREMENT

Agency: Child and Family Services Agency
Caption: Consultant Services – Michael Saunders
Contract: DCRL-2013-A-0095

FINDINGS

1. Authorization:

D.C. Official Code § 2-354.04, 27 DCMR 1304 and 1702

2. Minimum Need:

The District of Columbia (DC) Child and Family Services Agency (CFSA) seeks a consultant to provide coaching and training to the supervisory staff of the Office of Youth Empowerment (OYE).

3. Estimated Fair and Reasonable Cost:

$75,000.00

4. Facts Which Justify and Sole Source Procurement:

- 1) The proposed provider began work with OYE for two days each month through December 2012, when their days allotted through The Annie E. Casey Foundation ended. During his short time with OYE, Mr. Saunders began to lay the ground work for the frontline supervisory staff on how to effectively lead social workers to engage youth around specific transition components; education, employment, and permanency and stability after exit from care for older youth in the District of Columbia.
- 2) The proposed provider, Michael Saunders, is aware of the services to be provided and is capable of performing services within the time constraints levied by the Agency. Michael Saunders has extensive experience as a speaker, trainer, and consultant in the juvenile justice and child welfare systems. He also served as a Technical Assistant for the California Permanency for Youth Project (CPYP). Michael Saunders MSW currently provides technical assistance for the Annie E. Casey Foundation with the Child Welfare Strategy Group in the area of youth engagement.

3) A market survey was considered, but given the Agency's immediate need Michael Saunders is the best, most qualified consultant.
