Page 2

1. Is the member fee schedule required to be exactly as presented in the request or is there an ability to offer an alternative copayment amount?

OCP Response:

Yes, alternative solutions will be accepted.

2. One of our representatives visited your office yesterday to get a version of the RFP in a form that can be manipulated to include responses. It is our understanding that the RFP is available only in PDF format. Is this correct?

OCP Response:

Yes, the RFP is only available in PDF format.

3. The enrollment information provided on the website and materials provided at your office are current only up to 2005. Is there more recent data available?

OCP Response:

No, I'm afraid the information presented is the most current information OCP has available at this time.

4. Rates presented in the RFP are current only up to 2006. Is there more recent data available?

OCP Response:

No, I'm afraid the information presented is the most current information OCP has available at this time.

5. Claim information is current up to 12/31/2008. Is 2009 data available? Also, the claim data provided is unclear and we would like to discuss how to interpret the reports with you.

OCP Response:

No, I'm afraid the information presented is the most current information OCP has available at this time. With respect to how reports should be interpreted, all questions should be submitted in writing, so that answers can be shared with all.

6. We have additional questions concerning the subcontracting components and amounts required as well.

OCP Response:

All questions should be submitted in writing, so that answers can be shared with all.
