SECTION C: SPECIFICATIONS/WORK STATEMENT

C.1. SCOPE

The Property Acquisition and Disposition Division (PADD) of the District of Columbia Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) seeks a Contractor to provide auction and advertising services to assist PADD in the disposal of certain real property in its inventory. PADD needs a contractor to develop and recommend a comprehensive advertising plan for each property proposed for sale at auction. The objective of the advertisement services is to target developers and individuals who have sufficient funds to cover the acquisition costs associated with each property and who have the capacity/resources to complete rehabilitation of the property they acquire within 18 months of the date of sale.

C.1.1. Definitions

Advertising Plan: Plan to advertise each of the properties to be offered in the auction via newspaper, radio, local television, or other.

C.2 BACKGROUND

The PADD is a relatively new division of DHCD that consolidated two programs, the Homestead Housing Preservation Program and the Home Again Program. PADD acquires vacant and abandoned residential property in the District of Columbia by one of the following means: (i) negotiated sale with the owner (provided that the owner can convey good and marketable title), (ii) eminent domain, (iii) assignment from other public agencies and instrumentalities, or (iv) foreclosure on District of Columbia real property tax liens imposed for non-payment of taxes. Previously, the Homestead Housing Preservation Program disposed of properties to individuals by lottery and the Home Again Program disposed of properties through a Request For Proposals (RFP) process open to pre-qualified developers. PADD is currently exploring new disposition methods and one of those methods is disposing of properties by auction. More information about the Property Acquisition and Disposition Division can be obtained by clicking on the Property Acquisition and Disposition link on the DC Department of Housing and Community Development website: www.dhcd.dc.gov.

Currently twenty-four properties are to be auctioned in the first auction; however, PADD may add additional properties to this number prior to awarding this contract. PADD may conduct two auctions during the 2009 fiscal year.

C.3 REQUIREMENTS

C.3.1 ADVERTISING PLAN REQUIREMENTS

The Contractor shall submit an advertising plan, to the COTR within 14 days of contract award, for properties to be auctioned, which plan shall include the following:

1. Minimum bid prices for each property set by PADD;
2. Notification to the public that there are conditions and restrictions associated with

- each property to be sold and that these conditions are expressed in both the sales agreement and the Construction Completion Covenant.
3. Means by which PADD can make templates available to the public. PADD will make templates of both the sales contract and the Construction Completion Covenant available to the public for review prior to holding the auction. Contractor's plan shall provide a means by which PADD can make these documents and their associated conditions available to the public for review prior to the auction. It must be clear to the public that neither document is negotiable.
 4. Information regarding where and when to register to participate in an auction and notification that all participating bidders must sign an acknowledgment upon registering to participate in the auction. The acknowledgment states that the participating bidders have read, are aware of and agree to all the auction rules and the sales agreement and Construction Completion Covenants for any property they bid on.
 5. Notification that winning bidders will be required to execute the sales contract on the day of the auction and will be required to close on the acquisition of the property within 45 to 60 days from the auction date. Upon execution of the sales contract, the winning bidder's participation fee will become deposit money; such funds will be held in escrow by Contractor and credited to winning bidder at the closing table. If a bidder is the winning bidder on more than one property, such bidder will be required to provide additional funds (other than the participation fee) to cover the deposit on those properties. If a winning bidder fails to close within the required timeframe, they forfeit their deposit. Such deposit funds will serve as liquidated damages to the District of Columbia and will be our sole remedy in the event of default on the part of the winning bidder/purchaser.
 6. Notification that the Contractor's commission will be paid solely by the buyer in the form of a buyer's premium. Such buyer's premium will be a set percentage, agreed upon by Contractor and the District, of the final bid price of each property. Said premium will be in addition to the winning bid amount as an additional expense to be paid for by the buyer. The buyer's premium requirement must be readily disclosed in all advertising disseminated to the public. Further, bidders will be required to sign an acknowledgment about the buyer's premium at the time of registration for participation in the auction.

C.3.2 ADVERTISING PLAN PAYMENT

The District will pay Contractor directly for the advertising costs associated with each auction property. Contractor shall provide to the COTR a comprehensive advertising plan for the properties to be included in the auction. Such advertising plan shall include an estimate for advertising costs for each individual property.

C.3.3 AUCTION REQUIREMENTS

The Contractor shall perform the auction on the date designated by PADD and coordinate all auction activities with the COTR. The Contractor shall use qualified personnel, who are licensed and bonded, to the extent applicable in the District of Columbia to perform the auction requirements. The Contractor shall provide all labor, material and equipment necessary to conduct the auction. The Contractor shall provide the following services in conjunction with the auction:

1. Registration services

The Contractor shall register each bidder who intends to participate in the auction. At the time of registration, Contractor shall collect a minimum participation fee from each bidder. The amount will be determined by PADD. If a bidder is the winning bidder on a property, their participation fee will be applied toward their deposit for acquisition of the property. If a bidder pays the participation fee and is not the winning bidder on any property offered at auction, the Contractor shall refund such bidder's participation fee immediately upon conclusion of the auction.

2. Auctioneer services

The Contractor shall perform auctioneer services on the date of the auction. The Contractor shall control the bidding floor and keep track of bid amounts. The Contractor shall distribute bid cards and keep track of bidders' identity. The Contractor shall name winning bidders and facilitate execution of sales contracts at the auction.

3. Escrow services

The Contractor shall hold all winning bidder deposit funds in escrow until the time of closing. At the time of closing, Contractor shall wire all deposit funds to the title company handling the closing.

4. Reporting

The Contractor shall submit a final summary sheet post audit listing each property sold, the sales price, and the commission earned.

C.3.4 The Contractor, its employees and family members are prohibited from bidding in auctions.

SECTION M - EVALUATION FACTORS

M.1 EVALUATION FOR AWARD

The contract will be awarded to the responsible offeror whose offer is most advantageous to the District, based upon the evaluation criteria specified below. Thus, while the points in the evaluation criteria indicate their relative importance, the total scores will not necessarily be determinative of the award. Rather, the total scores will guide the District in making an intelligent award decision based upon the evaluation criteria.

M.2 TECHNICAL RATING

The Technical Rating Scale is as follows:

Numeric Rating	Adjective	Description
0	Unacceptable	Fails to meet minimum requirements; e.g., no demonstrated capacity, major deficiencies which are not correctable; offeror did not address the factor.
1	Poor	Marginally meets minimum requirements; major deficiencies which may be correctable.
2	Minimally Acceptable	Marginally meets minimum requirements; minor deficiencies which may be correctable.
3	Acceptable	Meets requirements; no deficiencies.
4	Good	Meets requirements and exceeds some requirements; no deficiencies.
5	Excellent	Exceeds most, if not all requirements; no deficiencies.

For example, if a sub factor has a point evaluation of 0 to 6 points, and (using the Technical Rating Scale) the District evaluates as "good" the part of the proposal applicable to the sub factor, the score for the sub factor is 4.8 (4/5 of 6). The sub factor scores will be added together to determine the score for the factor level.

M.3 EVALUATION CRITERIA

Proposals will be evaluated based on the following technical evaluation factors listed in descending order of importance.

M.3.1 TECHNICAL CRITERIA (80 Points)

1. Technical Expertise (50 Points)

The Contractor has demonstrated its experience conducting auctions on properties with special emphasis on properties in the District of Columbia. The Contractor has demonstrated experience and success at advertising properties in preparation for an auction. The Contractor has demonstrated experience at collecting buyer deposit funds at auction and holding such funds in escrow in preparation for closing.

2. Past Performance (30 Points)

The Contractor has demonstrated it has satisfactorily performed real estate auction services for other public and private sector clients.

M.3.2 PRICE CRITERIA (20 Points)

The price evaluation will be objective. The offeror with the lowest commission fee will receive the maximum price points. All other proposals will receive a proportionately lower total score. The following formula will be used to determine each offeror's evaluated price score:

$$\frac{\text{Lowest price proposal}}{\text{Price of proposal being evaluated}} \times 20 = \text{Evaluated price score}$$

M.3.3 PREFERENCE (12 Points)

M.3.4 TOTAL (112 Points)

M.4 EVALUATION OF OPTION YEARS

The District will evaluate offers for award purposes by evaluating the total price for all options as well as the base year. Evaluation of options shall not obligate the District to exercise them. The total District's requirements may change during the option years. Quantities to be awarded will be determined at the time each option is exercised.
