AMENDMENT 0002

ATTACHMENT A - RESPONSES TO ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS FROM OFFERORS

Q1. Can bids be submitted to you by email?

A1. Electronic bids will not be accepted. As per Sections L.2.1 and L.7 of the solicitation, bids shall be submitted in an envelope that clearly indicates that it contains a bid and identifies the IFB.

Q2. So the question is whether to just indicate on the form that we are not able to be a LSDBE or that we are not certified, and then send that with the bid?

A2. If your firm has been previously certified as a Certified Business Entity (CBE), then you would have received a package inclusive of a certification letter. If you are not certified or eligible to be a CBE, as per the District's guidelines, a statement to that fact should be included with your bid submission.

Q3. Is it OK to omit the square and lot line as it did not apply to us? If not, what do we put down?

A3. If there is not a square and lot line associated with your firm's business address, then there is no information to submit.

Q4. There will be no creation of jobs as a result of solicitation. How should the requirements of the First Source Agreement be responded to if it does not apply?

A4. Section H.3.5 and H.3.6 provide the grounds for requesting a waiver of this requirement.
