C.4 BACKGROUND

- C.4.1 In December 2009, the District of Columbia, Department of Health (DOH) launched the Live Well DC initiative, a District-wide wellness initiative utilizing interagency collaboration and public-private partnerships. The goal of the Live Well DC initiative is to educate members of the public about importance of lifestyle choices that can improve health outcomes for all District residents and visitors. In February 2010, DOH released a report, Preventable Causes of Death Report (Applicable Document #2), on modifiable risk factors and preventable deaths which identifies tobacco use, physical inactivity, and poor nutrition as the leading underlying causes of preventable deaths in the District, accounting for 32% (or 1640 deaths) for 2007, and promotion of “10 for 10: Ten Healthy Living Tips for 2010”, a set of health principles to educate members of the public and communities and encourages them to make health lifestyle changes and to “live well”. The ten tenets of the Live Well DC program are: eat right, move more, don’t smoke, have medical visits, choose responsible sexual behavior, care for and inspire our children, have good hygiene, use stress reduction techniques, share with others and promote literacy. The 2007 Mortality Report and the 2007 inaugural Obesity Report will be released in May 2010.
- C.4.2 The goal of this solicitation is to identify a contractor that can develop and implement a social marketing, public education and communications program based upon the Live Well DC tenets and to develop a Live Well DC “brand” that is easily recognizable by the public that (encourages) the public to make healthy lifestyle choices. The media campaign should be an evidence-based advertising model aimed at increasing physical activity, eating nutritious foods and making other healthy lifestyle choices. Currently, the National Capitol Region has no major media campaign that promotes healthy lifestyle choices for area residents and visitors. DC DOH plans to launch the focused media campaign that promotes healthy eating, the benefits of regular, sustained physical activity and other health lifestyle choices. DC DOH envisions a campaign that utilizes positive messages and emphasizes the benefits of improved nutrition, including fresh vegetables and fruits, regular physical activity and other healthy lifestyle choices. The DC DOH message will evolve over time to show the negative effects of overeating, poor food choices, sedentary life style and poor lifestyle choices as threats to “Living Well.”

DC DOH envisions emerging media and technology formats that shall be utilized and emphasized to reach audiences that historically have proved hard to reach and difficult to influence. DC DOH envisions the Live Well DC messages ubiquitous, in order to reach the target population DC DOH, in collaboration with District Department of Transportation (DDOT), and WMATA, will develop signs for buses, trains, and bus shelters utilizing the Live Well DC brand. Further, DC DOH has the commitment of the Office of Planning, DC Hunger Solutions, and The Food Trust to work with landlords and lessees to promote not only their fresh food, “FRESH”, advertising, placement, displays and signage in corner stores (currently the number of cooperating grocery stores is a maximum of fifteen), but to include the Live Well DC brand signage as well.

Best and final offers will be subject to the Late Submissions, Late Modifications and Late Withdrawals of Proposals provisions of the solicitation. After receipt of best and final offers, no discussions will be reopened unless the CO determines that it is clearly in the District's best interest to do so, e.g., it is clear that information available at that time is inadequate to reasonably justify contractor selection and award based on the best and final offers received. Offeror must submit with its proposal convincing evidence that demonstrates that the offeror meets the Special Standard(s) of Responsibility. At a minimum, an offeror must provide the following evidence:

Copies of documents that were developed and implemented related to improved health outcomes in other government health departments or other health- related entities.

SECTION M - EVALUATION FACTORS

M.1 EVALUATION FOR AWARD

The contract will be awarded to the responsible offeror whose offer is most advantageous to the District, based upon the evaluation criteria specified below. Thus, while the points in the evaluation criteria indicate their relative importance, the total scores will not necessarily be determinative of the award. Rather, the total scores will guide the District in making an intelligent award decision based upon the evaluation criteria.

M.2 TECHNICAL RATING

M.2.1 The Technical Rating Scale is as follows:

Numeric Rating	Adjective	Description
0	Unacceptable	Fails to meet minimum requirements; e.g., no demonstrated capacity, major deficiencies which are not correctable; offeror did not address the factor.
1	Poor	Marginally meets minimum requirements; major deficiencies which may be correctable.
2	Minimally Acceptable	Marginally meets minimum requirements; minor deficiencies which may be correctable.
3	Acceptable	Meets requirements; no deficiencies.
4	Good	Meets requirements and exceeds some requirements; no deficiencies.
5	Excellent	Exceeds most, if not all requirements; no deficiencies.

M.2.2 The technical rating is a weighting mechanism that will be applied to the point value for each evaluation factor to determine the offeror's score for each factor. The offeror's total technical score will be determined by adding the offeror's score in each evaluation factor. For example, if an evaluation factor has a point value range of zero (0) to forty (40) points, using the Technical Rating Scale above, if the District evaluates the offeror's response as "Good," then the score for that evaluation factor is 4/5 of 40 or 32.

If subfactors are applied, the offeror's total technical score will be determined by adding the offeror's score for each subfactor. For example, if an evaluation factor has a point value range of zero (0) to forty (40) points, with two subfactors of twenty (20) points each, using the Technical Rating Scale above, if the District evaluates the offeror's response as "Good" for the first subfactor and “Poor” for the second subfactor, then the total score for that evaluation factor is 4/5 of 20 or 16 for the first subfactor plus 1/5 of 20 or 4 for the second subfactor, for a total of 20 for the entire factor.

M.3 EVALUATION CRITERIA

A. Factor: Technical Approach

Description: This factor considers the Technical Approach the offeror will use to perform the requirements as described in Section C of this solicitation. This factor examines the offeror’s proposed technical plan, including the offeror’s description of service delivery. 1. Technical Approach and Methodology

- a. Project Understanding: Narrative to describe the Offeror’s understanding of the objectives of the tasks, the District’s requirements, and how the tasks relate to the objectives of the project. - b. Project Approach: Narrative describing the approach to meeting the requirements outlined in Scope of Services that demonstrates the Offeror’s ability to provide the required services and deliverables. The Offeror should describe its approach to working with the District to meet the project goals. - Experience and demonstrated success in previous projects in large cities and diverse highly urban areas involving research, public involvement and drafting recommendations for presentation to high level government officials and the general public.

M.3.2 PRICE CRITERION (_35_Points Maximum)

The price evaluation will be objective. The offeror with the lowest price will receive the maximum price points. All other proposals will receive a proportionately lower total score. The following formula will be used to determine each offeror's evaluated price score:

$$\frac{\text{Lowest price proposal}}{\text{Price of proposal being evaluated}} \times 35 \text{ weight} = \text{Evaluated price score}$$

M.3.3 PREFERENCE POINTS AWARDED PURSUANT TO SECTION M.4.2 (12 Points Maximum)

M.3.4 TOTAL POINTS (112 Points Maximum)

Total points shall be the cumulative total of the offeror’s technical criteria points, price criterion points and preference points, if any.

M.4 EVALUATION OF OPTION YEARS
