AMENDMENT NO. 3 – QUESTIONS AND RESPONSES

AMERICAN VETERANS DISABLE FOR LIFE MEMORIAL

INVITATION NO. DCKA-2011-B-0084

| Questions | Answers |
|--|---|
| 1. Per general note # 8 on page G-3. Please confirm that the contractor is not responsible for obtaining or paying for: Public Space permit (s), plate permits, occupancy permits, or “inconvenience fees”. Our understanding is that on DCDOT contracts, these fees are not applicable. | The contractor is not responsible for obtaining or paying for: DC Public Space permit (s), plate permits, occupancy permits, or “inconvenience fees”. However, other requirements such as “WMATA Monitoring and Coordination expenses – item 000519” as mentioned in SP 25 are the contractor’s responsibility. |
| 2. Per note 2 on P-2: Please confirm that ALL incidental reconstruction of existing features such as curbs, sidewalks, landscaping, roadways, ramps etc, repairs are incidental to the conduit construction, and not to be paid per the contract bid items 402010 through 611076. If this is correct per this note 2, what is the purpose for these repair items? | The note 2 on P-2 is revised as follow: All site features in the vicinity of the project that are not shown in contract plans including but not limited to sidewalk, roads, and landscaping which are disturbed or destroyed during construction activities shall be replaced in-kind at Contractor expense. |
| 3. Per note # 10 on P-1: is “hand excavation” around WMATA structure necessary from the street level to the bottom of the proposed trench from approximately the Ford Office Building, to new structure T-1. In order to construct the new conduit over the WMATA tunnel in this area? | Hand digging is required. However, DDOT/WMATA reserve the right to allow use of light equipment during construction after actual location, alignment and elevation of WMATA structure is established. |
