SOLICITATION NO. DCKT-2010-B-0136
SOLID WASTE HAULING AND DISPOSAL SERVICES

1. The previous solicitation (DCKT – 2008-B-01060) for Hauling and Disposal of Solid Waste was for hauling 100,000 ton of combustible solid waste to Fairfax, hauling 180,000 ton of combustible solid waste to a licensed disposal facility, disposing of 180,000 ton of combustible solid waste at a licensed disposal facility and the other line items have remained the same. My question is all the combustible solid waste now going to Fairfax and if so what happened to the other 80,000 ton?

Answer: In the previous solicitation, the District's total estimated waste was 180,000 tons (inclusive of the projected 100,000 tons going to Fairfax). Under this solicitation, the District's total estimated waste is 200,000 tons all of which is going to Fairfax.

2. Section B.3.4 states that if Fairfax cannot accept all the waste, the waste will go to more than likely King George, VA. Will there be a separate disposal bid for the material that does not go to Fairfax?

Answer: No, there will not be a separate disposal bid

3. Do you have to bid on all the contract line items or can you bid on specific line items (i.e. submit numbers just on hauling or disposal)? Section L.1.2 states the District can award multiple contracts.

Answer: You must bid all CLINs in order to be considered. L.1.2 states that the District intends, but is not obligated, to award a single contract.

4. Can the non-combustible solid waste (i.e. C & D waste) be taken to a permitted C & D disposal facility or does it have to go to a permitted MSW disposal facility?

Answer: Yes if the waste is made up of all non-combustible material (i.e. acceptable to a C&D facility) then it can be taken to a licensed C&D disposal facility.

5. Section M.1.1.1 States that if the prime contractor sub contracts any portion of the work under this contract at least 35% of the dollar volume shall be contracted to a certified small business. If the prime contractor is a certified small business does this requirement apply if the subcontractor is not a small business?

Answer: The subcontracting requirement applies to all prime contractors. If the prime contractor is a CBE and intends to subcontract, it must subcontract 35% of the dollar value of the contract to a CBE.
